Traditional Knowledge Book Symposium
28th & 29th March 2014
Brisbane

Venue: Level 7, Webb Centre (S02), Griffith University, South Bank Campus

Friday 28th March

8.30-9.00am   Tea and Coffee on arrival
              Board Room (Room 7.16)

9.00-9.30am   Introduction/Opening

9:30-11:00am  Graham Dutfield
Implementing the Nagoya Protocol as if customary law really matters.

11:00-11.30am Morning tea

11.30-1:00pm  Maui Solomon
Revival of a cultural identity thought to be extinct.

1:00-2:00pm   Lunch

2:00-3.30pm   Angela Riley
Traditional Knowledge and Living Indigenous Cultures.

3.30-4:00pm   Afternoon Tea

4:00-5.30pm   Michael Halewood
Canadian common law aboriginal knowledge protection rights: an opportunity for expanding the recognition of customary law?

7pm           Dinner:
              Bengal Kitchen 641 Stanley Street, South Brisbane
Saturday 29th March

9.00-9:30am  Tea and Coffee on arrival
               Board Room (Room 7.16)

9:30-11.00am  Jennifer Corrin

Recognition of Indigenous customary laws by the state in Melanesia.

11.00-11.30pm  Morning Tea

11.30-1.00pm  Miranda Forsyth

Navigating the mythscape of biodiversity and associated traditional knowledge in Pacific Island countries.

1.00-2:00pm  Lunch

2:00-3:30pm  Ilse Kobler-Rollefson

Traditional versus scientific knowledge in the animal breeding and livestock sector: how can they be put onto a level playing field?

3:00-4:00pm  Afternoon Tea

4:00-5:30pm  Regis Lafargue

Recognizing a “Common Bio-Cultural Heritage”, or Kanak Custom Challenging the Western Legal “Tradition”

7pm  Dinner:
     The Story Bridge Hotel – Shelter Bar, 200 Main St, Kangaroo Point.